The Renowned Jewellery Industry-Trading Hub in Southeast Asia

Malaysia International Jewellery Fair (MIJF) 2014

“Hosted Buyers Program” Exclusively for Overseas Jewellery Trade Buyers!

KUALA LUMPUR: Malaysia International Jewellery Fair (MIJF) is returning on July 18-21 (Friday – Monday), 11am-7pm, at one of the most well-known trade hub in Southeast Asia - Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre, Malaysia. Industry players and jewellery lovers are highly encouraged to visit and inspire themselves with best new jewellery collections in trend and nourish themselves with a list of expedient in-line exhibition programmes.

Malaysia International Jewellery Fair (MIJF) is well-recognized as one of the most significant and key jewellery trading hub within the Southeast Asian region. This must-attend event is consistently granted with support and acknowledgement from the global jewellery associations, delegates and professional buyers. MIJF 2014 will congregate more than 200 international jewellery brands to showcase more than 300,000 pristine jewellery collections, innovative gemmology technology and advanced craftsmanship. Meanwhile, the exhibition is also anticipating the arrival of over 18,000 global jewellery traders and potential buyers as they can now procure their pricing privileges from the discounted jewellery collection due to the tax exemption policy implemented from 1st January 2011 onwards.

With immense supports receive from government - Malaysia Tourism Promotion Board, Malaysia External Trade Development Corporation (MATRADE), Malaysia Convention & Exhibition Bureau (MyCeb), renowned oversea association Hong Kong Jewellery & Jade Manufactures Association (HKJJA) and the influential Federation of Goldsmiths and Jewellers Associations of Malaysia (FGJAM), MIJF 2014 envisions to strengthen the country's position as global standard jewellery trading catalyst while helping out in promoting the country as next best M.I.C.E hub in the eyes of the world.

Collaborating with FGJAM, MIJF had successfully made the “Malaysia Premier Pavilion” to showcase Malaysia’s most excellent gold craftsmanship skills and gold jewellery among Southeast Asia region. The pavilion congregates more than 20 local companies and targets to showcase premium Malaysian-made jewellery collections comprises of plain gold jewellery, gem set gold jewellery, silver jewellery and loose gemstone wholesaler for international branding purposes and thus, initiate the business transaction platform between these Malaysian jewellery manufacturer and international retailer or wholesaler, and propel the Malaysian jewellery industry forward to international level!

As an appreciation to all supporting parties, MIJF 2014 also introduce the “Hosted Buyers program”, encouraging the participation of jewellery industry’s trade buyers by providing FREE hotel accommodation for overseas trade buyers and transport incentive for local trade buyers. The hotel is only located 5 minutes walking distance from Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre.

The registration for the “MIJF 2014 Hosted Buyers Program” is now opening online.
